

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Abbreviations	x
Introduction Debbie A. Mohammed and Nikolaos Karagiannis	1
Part 1. Theoretical Issues and Alternative Perspectives
Chapter 1. The Caribbean in the Age of Globalization: From Plantations to Resorts Emilio Pantojas-García	9
Chapter 2. Corporate Governance in the Caribbean: Failures, Impact and the Way Forward Ron R. Sookram	32
Chapter 3. Identity Formation in the English-Speaking Caribbean: Towards a Sociodynamic Perspective Ronald Marshall and Russell Foote	51
Chapter 4. Caribbean Foreign Policies in the Twenty-First Century: From Activism to Improvisation in Diplomacy Jacqueline A. Braveboy-Wagner	69
Part 2. Economic Policies for Sustainable Growth
Chapter 5. The Post-Independence Performance of Caribbean Economies: The Centrality of Economic Policy Choices Dave Seerattan	103
Chapter 6. Central American Common Market and Caribbean Community Trade Policy and Competitiveness on the European Union Market Anthony Peter Gonzales	122
Chapter 7. Inclusive Growth and CARICOM Economies: Considerations in Developing a Green Growth Framework Debbie A. Mohammed	152

Chapter 8. Marshalling Transnational Partners for Caribbean Development: The Role of the Diaspora | Indianna D. Minto-Coy 176

Part 3. Globalization and Special Challenges

Chapter 9. New Dimensions of Regionalism in the Caribbean: An Analysis of the Shanique Myrie Case | Wendy C. Grenade 203

Chapter 10. Governance and Security in the Caribbean Region: What Does It Take? | Georgina Chami 221

Chapter 11. Advancing Caribbean Competitiveness: The Potential of Business Analytics | Gour C. Saha and Kamla Mungal 242

Chapter 12. Global Forces and the Role of Caribbean Trade Unions as Political Actors | Kristina Hinds-Harrison and Annita Montoute 266

Contributors 289